

Exciting Local Joint Health & Safety Committee Elections Just Around the Corner!

Will Gateway East Shift 3 Make a Significant Impact in the Local Joint Health & Safety Committee Elections?

MANOHAR SAHOTA

INSIGHT

The eagerly anticipated Local Joint Health & Safety Committee (LJHSC) elections for Gateway East Shift 3 are just around the corner, and the anticipation is reaching new heights. With experienced LJHSC representatives Basil Joseph and John Kalapurakal in the race for the member position, and a thrilling competition among four candidates—Imran, Greta, Ronak, and Victor—for the alternate member role, these elections are shaping up to be an exciting event. It is crucial that we exercise our voting rights wisely and actively participate in this important process.

Basil Joseph and John Kalapurakal, both seasoned LJHSC representatives, have tirelessly worked to enhance safety measures on the floor. With their extensive experience and commitment, they have garnered widespread respect and admiration. It is evident that either candidate would make a valuable addition to the committee, contributing their knowledge and expertise to further improve workplace safety.

The race for the alternate member position is equally captivating, as all four candidates—Imran, Greta, Ronak, and Victor—have gained significant support from their peers. The enthusiasm surrounding their candidacies showcases their potential to make a positive impact on safety initiatives. Witnessing the outcome of this race will undoubtedly be thrilling, as each candidate brings their unique qualities and perspectives to the forefront.

The LJHSC elections for Gateway East Shift 3 are scheduled to take place on Sunday, July 10, and Monday, July 11. The voting will occur upstairs in the cafeteria, providing a convenient location for all shift members to cast their votes. The voting period will run from 2:30 pm to 10:30 pm on both days, allowing ample time for every eligible voter to participate.

Despite requests from the floor to schedule the elections on Monday or Tuesday, the local committee has decided to maintain the original dates. We understand that this may present challenges for some individuals, particularly casual workers. It is unfortunate that casual workers will have only one day to vote, contingent on whether they receive a work call on Monday.

Nevertheless, we encourage all eligible voters, including the members of Gateway East Shift 3, to make the most of the available voting period. Your participation in the LJHSC elections is crucial for shaping the future of safety in your work environment. Take the time to carefully consider the qualifications, visions, and dedication of each candidate before casting your vote.

Mark your calendars and head to the cafeteria upstairs between 2:30 pm and 10:30 pm on July 10 and 11. Let your voice be heard during the LJHSC elections for Gateway East Shift 3. By doing so, you will play an active role in creating a safer and healthier workplace for everyone.

Your vote matters, so use it wisely!